CICERONIANA ON LINE invites submissions for contributions to the sixth volume of the new series, to appear in 2022. CICERONIANA ON LINE (COL) is a peer-reviewed journal (ISSN 2532-5353, http://www.ojs.unito.it/index.php/COL), listed on ACNP, APh, AWOL, BASE, BIBNET, DOAJ, ERIH PLUS, Google Scholar, Scopus, Sherpa Romeo.
COL appears every six months and is published by the International Society of Cicero's Friends (SIAC), together with the Centre for Ciceronian Studies in Rome (CSC). The journal is under the direction of Prof. Carlos Lévy and an academic board of sixteen international scholars. In line with its international reach, COL publishes articles in English, French, German, Italian, Spanish and Latin. COL continues the work started by Ciceroniana (ISSN 0009-6687), which until 2009 published in print the proceedings of the CSC's international Colloquia. These proceedings are now available on the journal's website.

The present Call for Papers invites original contributions on Cicero, as well as on topics that fall in the category of Roman Thought. Papers falling in this category should concern texts that in their content or in the conditions of their production have a close or a distant link to Roman philosophy or its Fortleben. Papers on Cicero may address his various guises, i.e. as a historical figure, author, philosopher, and human being, including his works, sources, and afterlife. The call is open to any discipline and methodology, including, but not limited, to philology, linguistics, literary history, exegesis, rhetoric, Quellenforschung, philosophy, archaeology, art history, prosopography, religion, psychology, intertextual studies, literary genre, gender studies, anthropology, Fortleben, didactic, new media and digital classics.
Deadline for submissions to 2022's sixth volume is the 20th of February 2022. After this date, the reviewers will begin the selection process. Prospective articles should be sent in .pdf and .doc format to committee1@tulliana.eu by the deadline.
Contributors must log into the Ciceroniana On Line website, creating a profile as "readers", and follow the editorial guidelines. These can also be found on the website, http://www.ojs.unito.it/index.php/COL/about/submissions#authorGuidelines. Articles for publication will be selected no later than April 2022. The volume will be published in June 2022.
