

Classical Reception and Children's Culture

A Show and Tell

Tuesday 19th June 2018 – University of Roehampton Library

From 10.30: meet in Library Café

Morning session, Archive Reading Room (11-1): each participant brings along a children's classical-themed object and talks about it.

1-2 Lunch: we head over to the student union run Hive Café

After lunch (2-4): we visit the children's literature collection guided by the Archivist, pick out something that especially interests each of us, and show and tell that.

Further info: s.deacy@roehampton.ac.uk

The event is connected with the ERC project Our Mythical Childhood... The Reception of Classical Antiquity in Children's and Young Adults' Culture in Response to Regional and Global Challenges

Photo by Dr Karen Pierce – for who it is that Karen has created, see <https://darksideofthecatalogue.wordpress.com/2018/06/03/playing-with-helen/>